Dan Cummins | Symphony of Insanity Tour

I designed print and screen-ready artwork to effectively promote the highly anticipated performance of renowned comedian Dan Cummins in the events center. The comprehensive range of assets encompassed a visually appealing poster, an inviting postcard invitation, appropriately sized website layouts for desktop and mobile devices, strategically designed digital advertising materials, dynamic animated internal screens, custom lanyards exclusively tailored for VIP guests, and well-crafted day-of signage.

210 Brewing Co.

The directive provided was to create a minimalist design style for a comprehensive menu. As a prominent local brewery restaurant, 210 Brewing Co prides itself on offering a full-service experience. Consequently, the design I crafted needed to seamlessly translate across various applications, such as food menus, touchscreens, table tents, coasters, and digital platforms. The subsequent redesign garnered favorable reception from both management and customers, attesting to its success.
